On investigation the officers found that "Pet" Bertrand had been hit over the head with a stick of wood and his head out open so that the services of a physi-Bishop cian were needed to sew up the wound. As far as the officers have been able to learn, the trouble started between the Bertrand family and some Spaniards who reside on Pike street. The police say that Bertrand claims the Spaniards insulted his sister as she was walking along the street and a free fight ensued. As yet no arrests have been made,
